

St. Alban Has Lengthy Schedule---College Quints Play Final Game---Bowling

NINETEEN GAMES MAKE UP DATES OF ST. ALBANS SCHOOL

All of High and Preparatory Teams of Washington Included on Schedule.

GREEN LACKS BACKSTOP

Swimmers of This Section Expected To Be Out for Big Baltimore Meet.

By BRYAN MORSE.

St. Alban is the first of the school-boys to get out a schedule for the season, and the youngsters out Tenleytown way will play nineteen games, meeting all of the high school and prep school teams in this section of the country.

The battles begin when Tome Institute comes here March 12 on its trip South. At least two games a week are booked for the St. Alban boys until the latter part of May, when the team goes to Baltimore and Philadelphia for its annual games on the Northern trip.

Right now St. Alban is confronted with a serious problem, one calculated to keep Coach George Green awake nights figuring out what can be done. The Blue and White pitching staff, with "Tiny" Holmes, Peyton March and "Unts" Brewer is admitted one of the best, if not the best corps among the schoolboys, but St. Alban has no catcher.

"Gabbo" Rust and Archie Coburn, veterans of last year's nine, failed to return, and although Cliff Cleburne entered school last fall, he went to work in mid-year and broke up what chances the team had for using a veteran backstop.

There are few veteran players in school this season. "Kirk" Kirkpatrick and "Chet" Lockwood, two veterans of last season, are now at George Washington. Frank Dyer, who held down first base in 1914, and is creating a record in golfing circles, Judson Fair is away at college while Walker White, a veteran of the past two years, is making a trial for the West Point team.

Besides Holmes and Brewer, Billy Northrup, Charlie Lee, and John Leavell remain from last season. Peyton March is sure to be a grand addition to Holmes in every way, as he is a good hitter and fields well. Among the newcomers trying for the team are John Pettit, Dunham Castle, Gwyn Rust, North, Clarence Hight, and William Shoemaker.

The schedule of games follows: St. Alban, 15; Tome, 12; St. Alban, 25; Friends at St. Alban, 27; St. Alban at Alexandria High, 30; Eastern at St. Alban, 15; Western at St. Alban, 17; St. Alban at Dunham, Baltimore, 20; Technical at St. Alban, 24; Alex. High at St. Alban, 26; St. Alban at Friends, 29; Western at St. Alban, 6; Central at St. Alban, 10; Technical at St. Alban, 15; St. Alban at Dunham, 18; Central at St. Alban, 22; Gilman at St. Alban, 25; Brantly Hall at St. Alban, 28; St. Alban at Tome, 28; St. Alban at Cedarcroft, Philadelphia, Pa.

Washington schoolboy swimmers are expected to be out in force at the fourth annual intercollegiate swimming championships to be held under the auspices of the Baltimore Athletic Club, in Baltimore, on March 20.

Army and Navy Prep will probably send Francis H. and Zerbe, while the Georgetown Preps, Army and Navy Academy, and St. Alban will have several athletes in the meet. Central High may send one or two swimmers to compete with the Baltimore boys.

"Buck" Wise, the Business right forward, jumped into the limelight among the basketball players in the Intercollegiate League battle Friday and into a tie for second place among the individuals. Peck, of Western, still leads the shooters, although his was considerably shrunk after Dyer, the Eastern captain, played him so closely.

The marks follow:

Player	G.	B.	Pts.
Peck, Western	3	13	32
Holmes, St. Alban	4	13	28
B. Wise, Business	3	13	26
Peck, Western	3	12	25

Kies, St. Alban	4	6	12
Dyer, Eastern	4	5	10
March, St. Alban	4	5	10
Northrup, St. Alban	3	5	8

Eastern, A. N. P., and St. Alban have finished their seasons and have failed to present leaders. Eastern, St. Alban, set a mark of seven baskets in one game, while Peck broke this with twelve against A. N. P.

Western, in getting away with Friday's game, set what is believed to be a schoolboy record in straight wins. The Westerners have annexed fourteen straight games without a defeat. The record follows:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Western, 43; St. Alban, 29.	12	0	1.000
Western, 28; Friends, 23.	5	3	.625

Western, 45; Y. M. C. A., 18.	5	3	.625
Western, 24; Eastern, 20.	5	3	.625

Business established a record of twelve straight wins this season. The Stenographers, who along without a defeat until the thirteenth battle, which went to Western.

There was no change in the standing of the various schoolboy teams on the season's work during the last week. St. Alban, Eastern, A. N. P., the Georgetown Prep, Fairmont, closed the season. The marks to date follow:

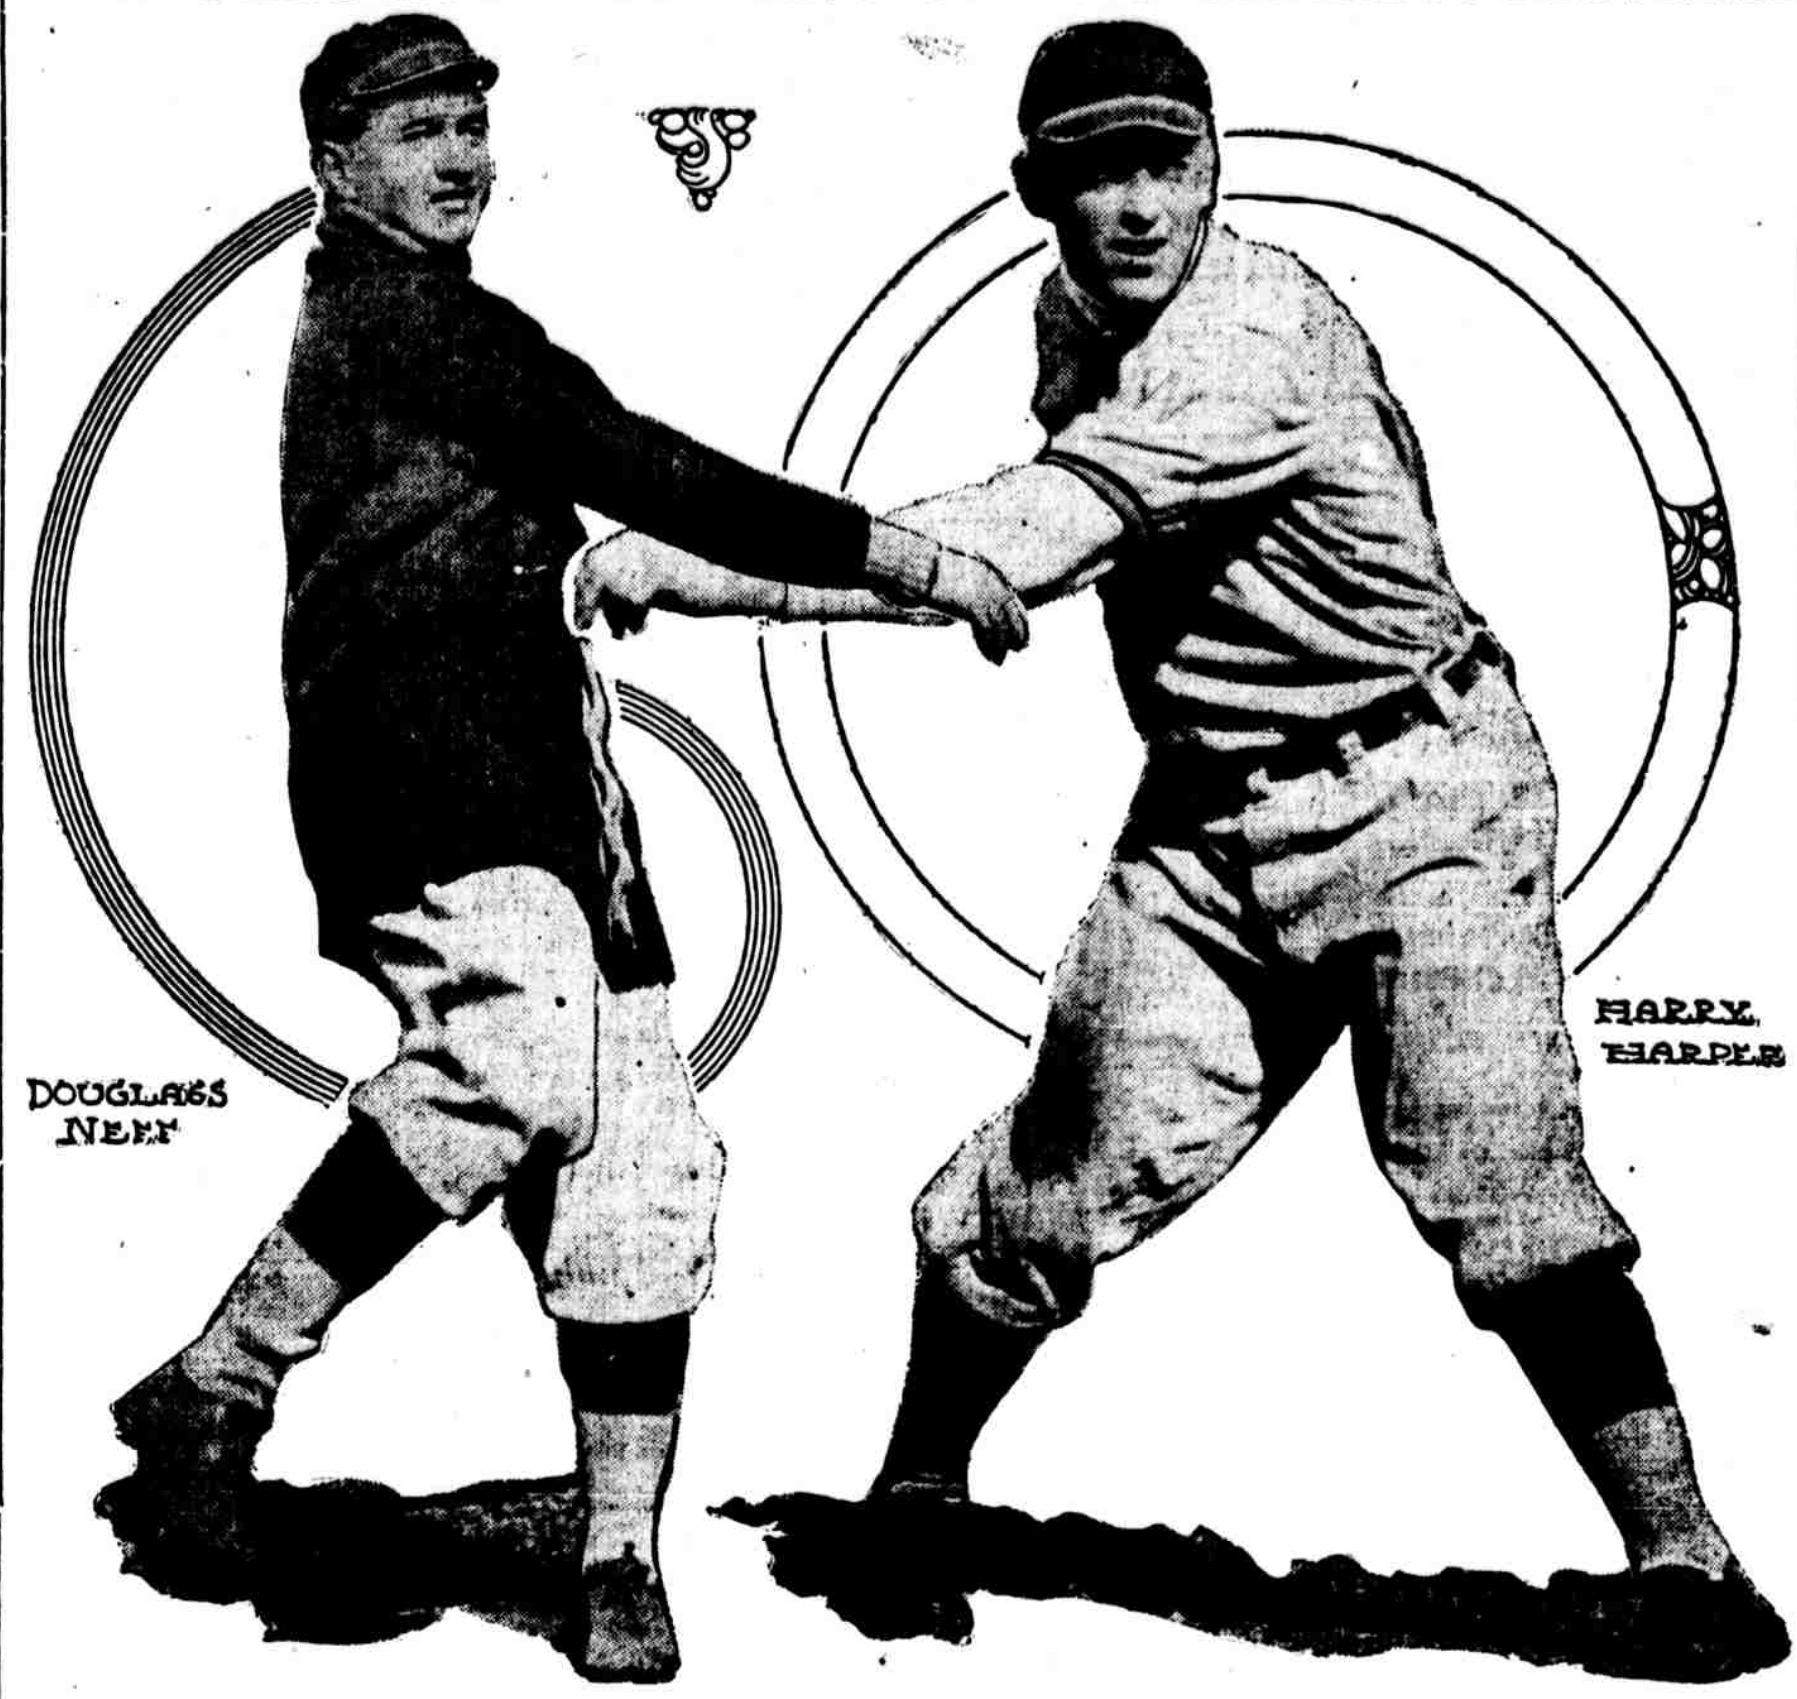

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Western	12	0	1.000
Business	5	3	.625
Gonzaga	5	3	.625
St. Alban	5	3	.625

Georgetown Prep	5	3	.625
Eastern	5	3	.625
Army and Navy Academy	5	3	.625
St. Alban Prep	3	11	.214

Close Basketball Is Order in S. S. League

Close margins in winning were gained by Peck and Eastern Presbyterian in the Sunday School basketball games played last night. The Peck boys played to the work of Johnson and Scott, won by a score of 21 to 18 over McKendree.

The Eastern team defeated the Covenanters by a score of 12 to 10. It was not until the final moments of play that the winner came out to the front. For Eastern Lawton and Tosh did the best work.

HOW THEY LOOK WORKING OUT AT CHARLOTTESVILLE

JEDS TAKE LEAD IN DISTRICT DUCK RACE

Fans Look Forward to Last Meeting of Squirrels and Nuts on Alleys.

Those Jeds today feel that the District Duckpin League title lies at their feet, following the set with the Royals, which ended in a 2 to 1 victory for Dyer's rollers. Jeds' advantage, however, is by only one game, and the Royals far from consider themselves out of the race. The schedule has six weeks to run, during which time both teams are booked to hook up with teams that may change the complexion of the District race completely.

Belmonts have proven a particularly formidable aggregation, and may yet give either the Jeds or Royals some trouble.

Capt. Charlie Plunkett expects to be able to announce in a couple of days the exact date on which the return set between the Nuts and Squirrels will be rolled. The first night that Harry Kraus can reserve an alley for the match, the clans of the two insane bowling tribes will come trooping in.

Pete Maloney has issued the statement that a six-piece section of the Marine Band will accompany the Squirrels on their long journey from the Southeast, in which case the only decent thing the Nuts can do will be to present the Squirrels with the north side of Pennsylvania avenue and throw in the Washington Monument, just to show there is no ill feeling.

Joe Levy, who molds the destinies of the Red Men bowling teams of Washington, has challenged a team of Baltimore, and it is expected that a Baltimore-Washington Red Men set will be on tap for the bowlers soon.

Sigma Chi Continues To Lead G. W. League

With the enviable record of twelve games won out of twelve played, Sigma Chi still is leading in the Interfraternity Bowling League of the George Washington University. The fraternity men roll on Tuesday and Thursday evenings commencing at 7:45 o'clock, on the Speedway alley, Fourteenth and P streets northwest.

The standing of the fraternity teams at present is:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Sigma Chi	12	0	1.000
Theta Delta Chi	5	3	.625
Delta Tau Delta	5	3	.625
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	7	5	.583
Kappa Sigma	6	6	.500
Sigma Phi Epsilon	3	6	.333
Kappa Alpha	3	6	.333
Phi Sigma Kappa	2	4	.333
Alpha Beta Phi	0	9	.000

Who's Who on Alleys

FRED H. KRAMER.

"Shades of Hamlet!" you will remark when we endeavor to bring back to life the old Florists tenpin team which used to be the very hub around which the big pin game revolved in Washington. Well, in that very coterie of bowlers there scintillated one Fred Kramer, who not only actually got out on the alleys and bowled, but lent his moral support to the game to such an extent that it gained a reputation which reached from Milwaukee, Chicago and some of the big tournament towns to Philadelphia and the Eastern cities where the Florists used to enter in triangular meets.

Kramer fell to reminiscing of the old days while at lunch in his favorite cafe a few afternoons ago, and when he dragged in such names as George Cook, "Billy" Ernest and some of the others who used to travel around with the Florists, his words gradually took the form of a typical Who's Who, and here we have him today. "Why," said Fred, "the Florists used to travel about as much as the baseball clubs do now. With us it was those days, it was tennis first, and after that we would sell what violets, Mignonette, golden rod and poppies we could—but the old tenpins received our foremost attention. We would close for a match with an out-of-town team as quick as we would take on a team from Anacostia, and we needed hogsheads to bring home the cups and prizes that we won." Kramer is one of the old stand patters who would like to see the tenpins revived—but as for the duckpins, why, he would rather call in Charley Stevens and Jacques Heidenheimer and run over a few verses of Snitzelberg.

WHITE AND HAHN OUT OF ROWING AT PENN COLLEGIATE TITLE AT STAKE TONIGHT

Washington Boys, Former Tech Athletes, Declared Ineligible For Freshman Crew.

Yale and Princeton Basketball Teams Will Untie Present Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—The University of Pennsylvania freshman eight received a serious blow today when Coach Vivian Nickalls was notified that Neal White and Arthur Hahn have been declared ineligible on account of conditions. White was declared by Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, physical director of Penn, to have the most nearly perfect figure he has examined in five years.

Both men are included in the first five strong men of the freshman class, and have been pronounced by Coach Nickalls the best freshmen he has handled at Penn.

Both rowed on the Annapolis Boat Club eight, of Washington, last year, which ranked with the best in that section.

C. L. Roberts Is Leader in Hexathlon Sports at "Y"

C. L. Roberts, with a score of 189, has a good margin on the "Y" athletes struggling for honors in the hexathlon events, which close on March 20. J. T. Davis was the individual winner of the standing broad jump, potato race, and was second in the fence vault.

There are 20,000 "Y" athletes competing in the indoor events. The scores are being mailed to Chicago, and Washington entrants are anxious to know how they compare with those in other cities.

League to Meet.

There will be a meeting of the Territorial Railroad Y. M. C. A. Baseball League Wednesday evening, March 10, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to reorganize the league and elect officers.

KEARNEYS LEADING ARGUERS' LEAGUE

Williams, Skilton, and Burdette All Have Big Marks for High Flat Game.

Kearneys have a three-game lead on their nearest competitors in the Arguers' League, and with three-quarters of the season completed, that club stands fair to cross the wire ahead of the entire field. Schoenemans are second, Espeys follow three games to the rear, and Burdette bring up the rear, just one game behind Espeys.

Three distinctively high flat games have been contributed during the games rolled to date. Skilton having a record of 91 for high flat game and Williams and Burdette each have marks of 90 in this department. The complete team and individual averages, including the third series, follow:

Player	W.	L.	Ave.	St.	Sp.	HG.	HS.
Williams	9	4	10	78	119	213	213
Kearney	8	10	12	87	127	223	223
Skilton	10	10	12	87	127	223	223
Burdette	10	10	12	87	127	223	223
Espey	8	7	4	6	59	126	126
McDow	8	10	4	17	106	251	251
See	8	10	4	17	106	251	251
Schoeneman	8	10	4	17	106	251	251
Espey	8	10	4	17	106	251	251
Allen	8	10	4	17	106	251	251
C. Schoeneman	8	10	4	17	106	251	251

State and Labor Want Merger in Tennis Teams

State and Labor, two of the department in the newly formed Departmental Tennis League, will ask for a merger to form one team for the coming matches, according to information given out today. The Departmental Tennis League will ask for a merger to form one team for the coming matches, according to information given out today.

Levinisky Places Blows Well and Gets Decision

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—Battling Levinisky defeated George Ashe in the wind-up last night at the Olympia, the bout going the limit. It was ruggedness and ability to hit matched against a clever fighter, and the latter triumphed. Ashe substituted for Tom McCarthy, the Western heavyweight, who is nursing a battered countenance in New York.

Gallaudet to Play.

Weather permitting, Gallaudet College baseball players will get their first workout of the season tomorrow when the Lincoln C. C. will meet at Kendall Green. The Lincoln schedule calls for a contest and there is every reason to believe the game will be played if the ground is in condition.

Meridan Elected.

With the Meridan A. C. team awarded a franchise in the Intercollegiate Junior League, plans are under way for the completion of the schedule to be made at a meeting held Monday night. Brookland withdrew in favor of Meridan.

LAST BASKETBALL CONTEST TOMORROW

Georgetown and George Washington Meet in Ryan Gymnasium in Return Game.

Georgetown and George Washington basketball teams will hook up tomorrow night in Ryan gym for the second time this season, the Hatchettes playing a return game, having dropped the first encounter to John O'Reilly's charges earlier in the year.

The battle is set for 8:30 o'clock, and as yet the teams have failed to come to an understanding about the official practice has been pushed reluctantly, as the Blue and Gray players are without the services of Jim Tormey and several of the basketball players have been trying their hand at baseball during the last two weeks.

The game will be the last of the season for both teams and the last collegiate basketball contest of the year. Georgetown and G. W. U. have had in and out seasons. Coach O'Reilly and Schlosser will make no predictions as to the outcome. There are those who maintain that G. W. U. will hand the Georgetown lads a surprise.

STUNTS AT PLATE UPSET TWIRLERS

Posing While at Bat Seldom Indulged In By Best Batsmen of the Game.

Batters have their peculiar notions about taking their position at bat, and most of them have some little oddities they indulge in just before stepping into the batsman's box. A few really believe that by going through a certain set of motions and ridiculous dices it will bring good luck. Others do it for effect a grandstand play, or for their own amusement. However, the great hatmen of the game, with few exceptions, rarely indulge in any of this fancy stuff either before or after getting to the plate. Sam Crawford, L. Lajole, "Honus" Wagner, "Home Run" Baker, and a few others of our famous batmen have a very busy-sello about them when taking their positions at the plate. The fact that they are there is sufficient to worry any pitcher.

A chap by the name of Lewee, who used to play with Kansas City, had a stunt he always pulled off before hitting at a ball that reminded one of an Indian medicine man going through his mysterious incantations. Invoking aid from the Father of the Great Waters. Just before his turn came to face the pitcher Lewee would take his cap in his left hand, then, swinging it slowly around, would face the sun—that is, if it were visible—then walk slowly to the plate, step on the rubber, and draw a steady turn round twice, step back, and hit the ball—that is, if he did not strike out.

"Ty" Cobb makes a great fuss before going to the plate, and generally creates a great fuss after reaching it. "Ty" swings an armful of bats for a long time before he strikes to the plate, but he only uses one, although many pitchers imagine he still has the armful by the manner in which he draws a shoe ball. Cobb has some stunts that are annoying to the pitcher that he pulls off in between balls and strikes, whichever he is batting. He will pose as if the case might be, he will suddenly stoop down and grab a handful of dirt just as the pitcher is about to pitch. "Ty" does not seem to worry whether the ball goes over the plate or not, for Cobb takes a strike about as meekly as any man in the league—but he can afford to.

Both "Mike" Kelly and Arlie Latham have the credit for being the first players to take up their bats and draw a line indicating his position, or where he would stand and dare the pitcher to put the ball within a mile of it. Some times after drawing the line Latham would pull his cap over one eye, cross his legs, and lean on his bat and challenge the pitcher to stick three out of eight (eight chances those days).

"Cap" Anson never said much before coming to bat, or when he was out, like Cobb, had very little regard for hitting, if the umpire's decision robbed him of a decision at first went against him, then you would hear "Pop's" roar a mile away.

TWO LOCAL SKATERS ENTERED AT GARDEN

Lyman Moore and Carroll Donnell Leave to Begin Practice Friday.

Washington will be represented in the twenty-four-hour roller skating race at Madison Square Garden March 17 and 18 by Lyman Moore and Carroll Donnell, the two fastest skaters developed in the Capital City in the past five years. This pair, under the management of Edward McCue, have annexed all of the most valuable prizes in events from one to ten miles in Washington this season and as a team have been invincible in their home town.

Moore and Donnell will leave for New York Friday to begin work for the long race and also the sprint events which take place March 16. Moore, the faster of the two, will do the sprinting for the team, while Donnell will do the plugging.

Signs Racing Bill; Then Erases Name

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 8.—A few minutes after Governor Haynes had signed the racing bill late yesterday, he called for the return of the bill, scratched off his signature, and put the bill in his pocket, declaring that he had until midnight to sign the measure.

The bill passed the legislature in the face of a strong fight against it. It legalizes pari-mutuel betting and provides for a State racing commission. Its principal purpose, it is said, is to re-establish horse racing at Hot Springs. At midnight tonight the bill becomes a law with or without the signature of the governor, unless he vetoes it.
